

OBLIVION (SARIS - Beyond The Rainbow)

Intro

You can call me a liar
You can call me a friend
Forgotten conscience
Forgotten dreams
You have sent me to Oblivion

You have forgotten
Things you have learnt
A hostage without mercy
In an artificial world
Lost.... in the crowd

Verse 1

What will happen when the day has come to leave?
So hard to escape the fate of grief

Verse 2

You race towards a future that we don't really have
One more false pretense is getting out of hand

Verse 3

When you start looking through the eyes of someone else
You feel salvation but you cannot see yourself

Bridge

You have sent me to Oblivion

Chorus

Falling from grace
Lost in oblivion
Open your eyes
You're not in paradise
