

New World (SARIS - Beyond The Rainbow)

Intro

I have seen a thousand faces
Tired voices all these years
There's a king who holds the sword
There's a world known from a tale

Verse 1

So cold the night
I feel the storm
Of reckless claims
Am I to blame?
Strange dreams of sorrow
Strange world tomorrow

Verse 2

Hold back those tears
Your eyes conceal
A new day dawns
I ride the storm
Strange dreams of sorrow

Chorus

Take me to the new world calling
Let the song and dance begin
The devil in disguise is falling
And the sword returns to the stone
