For all Mankind

Verse

you've changed I don't know you at all are you ok, just a bad day? deranged or derided, don't hide it it's just fate, is it too late?
it's just survival a twist of a spiral your screaming is primal in a world without end.

Verse

you played by the rules without knowing the game now who's to blame now.
you fell for the shine at the shrine of the me me me.
you're on the limit their breaking your spirit each day and each minute you know you have to try break the skin of the sky and

Chorus

Fly across the void of space
Feel the starlight on your face for all mankind
Be free in the seas tranquility
Find celestial dignity for all mankind.

plugging in I can't resist the calling like a snake in the Eden crawling
From the lowest point we're falling down
We keep on falling down down down down

Verse

You feed when detected, connected, rejected infected.
Can't breathe in this prison this underworld....
A contradiction that's truer than fiction just a new addiction that is going to break , break the skin, break the skin of the world and

Chorus

Fly across the void of space
Feel the starlight on your face for all mankind
Be free in the seas tranquility
Find celestial dignity for all mankind.

Perfect gotta be broken gotta be Laughing gotta be hating gotta be sunny gotta be losing gotta be happy gotta be hurting gotta be sexy gotta be shining gotta be give up give in.

Glide into Orions mind, leave the mortal clicks behind..

Fly across the void of space
Feel the starlight on your face for all mankind
Be free in the seas tranquility
Find celestial dignity for all mankind.
