Is Anybody out there

Verse

Please hear my words my message
Give me your rights of passage
Just turn around, just run, don't need to know your reasons,
Turn around, we're done, I'm not gonna fight your demons.
It's so Incredible, yet so invisible
Your weaving tales can fill the sails of every desperate man.

Chorus

Is anybody out there can you tell me how I got here?
Don't give me some fancy story
All dressed up in death and glory.
Can anybody show me, if anybody knows me?
Don't talk about your holy war
you don't know who I'm fighting for.
Just a cheap addiction for some someone else's fiction,
Is anybody out there tell me now!

Verse

Mysteriously magic Ingenious fanatic
Just turn around, just run, don't need to know your reasons,
Turn around, we're done, I'm not gonna fight your demons.
I look within my self I'm free from all the spells.
you hypnotise you prophetise you monetise your plan.

Chorus

Is anybody out there can you tell me how I got here?
Don't give me some fancy story
All dressed up in death and glory.
Can anybody show me, if anybody knows me?
Don't talk about your holy war
you don't know who I'm fighting for.
Just a cheap addiction for some someone else's fiction,
Is anybody out there tell me now!

Verse

Can I escape this madness.
Can't let you paint my canvass.
Just turn around, just run, don't need to know your reasons,
Turn around, we're done, I'm not gonna fight your demons.

Another dying breed, another lying creed,
I'll never trade and I'm afraid you've overstayed your welcome.

Chorus

Is anybody out there can you tell me how I got here?
Don't give me some fancy story
All dressed up in death and glory.
Can anybody show me, if anybody knows me?
Don't talk about your holy war
you don't know who I'm fighting for.
Just a cheap addiction for some someone else's fiction,
Is anybody out there tell me now!
