

SARIS

PROJECT OFF WORLD

Lyrics by Henrik Wager, Music by Derk Akkermann & Henrik Wager

© Henrik Wager

Mamucium

Ah, give me a chance to feel.

Verse

Brick by brick you built me, street by street i found my way.

(I saw you , I saw you grow)

Play by play you showed me, day by day I flowed away

(took with you all you could know)

Never wait for any man. Just do the best you can.

I belong I am you

all along I stand by you

(don't change me always the same)

Breaking out to break through all we had was red and blue

(You played me you played the game)

You're the ground beneath my feet. You're the shelter you're the street.

Chorus

I feel the roots, I feel the rise, I feel the space of your broken skies, a place to stand, a workers hand, you're where I'm from Mamucium.

Verse

This beating heart made this troubadour start on his journey.

(I know you, I know you know)

In my tribe I feel the love and pride of who I am

(we see it, we see the glow)

You're the ground beneath my feet. You're the shelter you're the street.

Chorus

I feel the roots, I feel the rise, I feel the space of your broken skies,
a place to stand, a workers hand, you're where I'm from Mamucium.

I'm going home, I want to feel the same again, I've got to feel the same.

I'm going home, the path will always lead me there, my path that always frees me.

I'm going home, I want to be the child again.

when we feel old, when we are far, you were the mould, you made who we are.

Verse

though the end is closer still old friends can hold the tide,

(I saw you , I saw you grow)

all those chances taken all those paths awaken me

(took with you all you could know)

You're the ground beneath my feet. You're the shelter you're the street.

Chorus

You're the one, the one the one...

I feel the roots, I feel the rise, I feel the space of your broken skies,
a place to stand, a workers hand, you're where I'm from Mamucium.