Surrounded

Intro

In this rage or in rapture the camera will capture everything that you could never be.

Got a feeling that I'm falling through the ceiling and I'm slipping away.
Like you're peeling back the layers of my shield and I'm slipping away.
In every fibre of my being you have made your self known.
The hunter will become the hunted when I get you alone.

Verse

Back when I used to believe all is fair in love and war.
Now I see I live in your dream and you'll hurt me to the core.
If you keep breathing this air slowly poisoning your sky.
Time will come when the clouds push down like casting chloroform dye.
In this rage or in rapture the camera will capture everything you've ever been or seen or done.

Verse

It's strange you always believed that I would fall so easily,
Could it be that your eyes still lie, telling you what you want to see.
If you knew just a bit about love, you'd know a lot of everything, but i guess the warrior dies when the lies and blame is wearing thin.
In this rage or in rapture the camera will capture everything that you could never be.

Chorus

I can't let go, when I'm fighting the flow, your surrounded (Take me dead or alive)
I've got you surrounded.
I'll never show what only I should know you're surrounded your headlines have frozen you in time.

Verse

There's only one thing to hear the sound of money talking, (Teach us nothing)
But if it all disappears which side will you be taking. (Take us to the water)
But if you opened your ears you'd hear a bomb is ticking. (Feed on rumour)
But now you're full on their fear you know a high will kick in.
In this rage or in rapture the camera will capture everything that you could never be.

Chorus

I can't let go, when I'm fighting the flow, your surrounded (Take me dead or alive)
I've got you surrounded.
I'll never show what only I should know
you're surrounded your headlines have frozen you in time.

In every fibre of my being you have made your self known.
The hunter will become the hunted when I get you alone.

Verse

I heard your soul is adrift, a sea of brain dead sorrow, (Teach us nothing)
I heard your job is a gift that no one wants to borrow. (Take us to the water)
I heard you'd be obsolete, a truth so hard to swallow. (Feed on rumour)
Just another deadbeat, we all will unfollow
In this rage or in rapture the camera will capture everything you've ever been or seen or done.

Chorus

I can't let go, when I'm fighting the flow, your surrounded (Take me dead or alive)
I've got you surrounded
I'll never show what only I should know
you're surrounded your headlines have frozen you in time.
I can't let go, when I'm fighting the flow, your surrounded (Take me dead or alive)
I've got you surrounded
I'll never show what only I should know
you're surrounded your headlines have frozen you in time.
